REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The primary reason for the allowance of the claims is the inclusion of the feature of depositing a first barrier layer, wherein the barrier layer is selected from the group consisting of  $\text{TiSi}_x\text{N}$ ,  $\text{TiN}(\text{C})$ ,  $\text{TiNSi}(\text{C})$ ,  $\text{Ta}$ ,  $\text{TaC}$ ,  $\text{TaN}(\text{C})$ ,  $\text{TaNSi}(\text{C})$ ,  $\text{W}$ ,  $\text{WN}_x$ ,  $\text{SiO}_x\text{N}_y$ ,  $\text{SiC}$ ,  $\text{AlN}$ , and  $\text{Al}_2\text{O}_3$ , removing the first barrier layer from the horizontal surfaces of the patterned substrate, and depositing a second barrier layer, which is not anticipated nor rendered obvious over the prior art of record. Prior art of record includes Taguchi et al. which teaches a first barrier layer comprising  $\text{SiN}_x$ , removing the first barrier layer from the horizontal surfaces of the patterned substrate, and depositing a second barrier layer, wherein  $\text{SiN}_x$  is the only material used for the disclosed intended purpose of  $\text{SiN}_x$  being a material that belongs to a class of material which does not contain the problematic water and oxygen and the  $\text{SiN}_x$  prevents the oxidation of the substratum layer that contains Ti. Prior art hereby made of record includes Hong et al., which teaches a first barrier layer that comprises one of  $\text{Si}_3\text{N}_4$ ,  $\text{Al}_2\text{O}_3$ ,  $\text{SiON}$  or  $\text{TiO}_2$ , and removing the first barrier layer from the horizontal surfaces, but teaches away from depositing a second barrier layer, as a second metallic barrier layer can produce a large increase in resistance-capacitance delay times, therefore it would not have been obvious to combine the teachings of Hong et al. and Taguchi et al., and applicant's claimed invention is not anticipated nor rendered obvious.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
